Ban Ruen Kham Care Home Opens Harvest Season Day Room for Village Elders

Ban Ruen Kham Care Home, Phayao · Press release PR-2026-07 · Issued 14 October 2026

PHAYAO, 14 October 2026 – Ban Ruen Kham Care Home will run its Harvest Season Day Room from Monday 2 November to Saturday 19 December 2026 for older people whose families work in the rice fields. The day room operates Monday to Saturday, 07:00 to 17:30, in Building C beside the main gate on Phahonyothin Road, Ban Tom subdistrict, Mueang Phayao. It can take up to 25 elders a day (the 2025 pilot ran on weekdays only for 14).

1. Who can attend

The day room is open to people aged 65 or over who live in Ban Tom, Ban Tun or Mae Ka subdistrict. Elders must be able to eat without help and walk with or without a stick. Wheelchair users are welcome on Tuesdays and Thursdays only, when a physiotherapy assistant is on duty. The day room cannot accept elders who need oxygen or tube feeding, or anyone with a temperature above 37.5 °C on arrival.

2. Fees and transport

- Standard fee: 120 baht per day, including lunch and two snacks (the 2025 pilot charged 90 baht per day).
- Families who book 10 days or more pay 100 baht per day for every booked day.
- Households on the care home's hardship list pay 40 baht per day; requests are reviewed by social worker Kanokwan Siriwat.
- Village van: 20 baht per round trip, leaving five collection points at 06:30 and returning at 17:00, with 12 seats available.

3. Registration

Registration is handled by Day Room Coordinator Duangjai Phromma. Register at the Building A reception desk or call 054 410 278 between 09:00 and 16:00. The registration deadline is Sunday 25 October 2026. Each elder needs a short health check before the first day; these are held on 29 and 30 October in Room A-04.

> Note. Families collecting after 18:00 more than twice may lose their booked days.

4. A day in the day room

Days start with a blood pressure check at 08:00; lunch is at 11:30, then residents lead bamboo basket weaving. "We want families to go to the fields knowing their parents have company," said Director Rattana Inthasuk.
