Seller Guide: Transferring Your Shop to a New Owner

Phuengmart Marketplace Co., Ltd. · Seller Centre guide SG-31, version 2 · Issued 14 September 2026

Use this guide if you have sold or handed over your business and the new owner wants to keep your Phuengmart shop name, listings, ratings and followers. Open orders, balances and your bank details are not transferred.

1. Before you start

- The shop must have been open for at least 90 days and must have no open policy violation or unresolved buyer dispute.
- The new owner must already hold a verified Phuengmart seller account. Individual sellers verify with a national ID card; company sellers also upload a company affidavit issued within the last 3 months.
- A shop can be transferred only once every 12 months.

2. Steps

1. In Seller Centre, go to Settings > Shop Ownership > Transfer Shop, enter the new owner's seller ID and confirm with the one-time code sent to your phone.
2. The new owner accepts the request within 7 days in their own Seller Centre. If they do not, the request expires and you must start again.
3. Switch the shop to Holiday Mode and finish every open order. The transfer cannot continue while any order is unshipped or inside its 15-day return window.
4. The Seller Verification Team checks the new owner's documents and matches them to the bank account they will use for payouts. This normally takes 3 working days.
5. The ownership change takes effect at 00:01 on the next Monday after approval.

3. Money and fees

The Seller Payments Team pays your final balance to your registered bank account 10 working days after the effective date, minus any refunds raised in that period. A transfer fee of 500 baht is charged to the new owner's account on the effective date. Until 31 July 2026 the fee was 300 baht. Transfers between spouses, or between a parent and child, are free if a house registration or marriage certificate is uploaded in step 4.

> Note. Shops in the Phuengmart Preferred Seller tier lose that tier on transfer. The new owner may reapply after 60 days of trading under their name; the shop rating and reviews are kept.

Questions about a transfer in progress go to the Shop Transfer Desk through Seller Centre chat, Monday to Friday, 09:00 to 18:00. Disputes over who owns a business are not decided by Phuengmart: the request is put on hold until both parties send a signed agreement or a court order.
