Moonfield Valley Festival 2026: Lost Property Notice

Fah Lanna Stageworks Co., Ltd. · Guest Services · Ref. GS-2026-031 · Issued 30 September 2026

Moonfield Valley Festival 2026 took place in Mae Taeng, Chiang Mai, from 25 to 27 September. This notice explains how to reclaim items found on site, in the campsites and on the official shuttle buses (items left in private taxis are not held by the festival).

1. Where items are held

All items have been moved from the festival site to the Guest Services office at 88/4 Chotana Road, Mae Rim, Chiang Mai (ground floor, Room G2). It is open Tuesday to Saturday, 10:00 to 17:00, and closed on Sundays, Mondays and public holidays. The temporary lost property tent at the Main Gate closed on 28 September and no longer accepts enquiries.

2. How long we keep items

- Phones, wallets, ID cards, passports, keys and jewellery: held until Tuesday 27 October 2026.
- Clothing, bags, water bottles and other general items: held until Saturday 17 October 2026.
- Tents, sleeping mats, folding chairs and other large camping equipment: held only until Sunday 4 October 2026, because of storage space.

Unclaimed general items and camping equipment are donated to local community groups in Mae Taeng. Unclaimed documents are destroyed securely; phones are wiped and recycled.

3. How to make a claim

1. Complete the online claim form with a description, the area of loss and your wristband number.
2. Wait for a reply with a claim reference starting with "MV-LP" (normally within 3 working days).
3. Collect the item in person with photo ID, or request delivery (Section 4). Phones must be unlocked in front of staff before release.

4. Delivery by courier

Delivery within Thailand costs 150 baht for the first item and 50 baht for each additional item in the same claim, paid by bank transfer before dispatch. Until 15 September the organiser had planned a flat 100 baht fee, but this was withdrawn. We do not ship outside Thailand or send passports by courier.

5. Contacts and responsibilities

Ms. Sirikanya Kittiyot, Lost Property Coordinator, manages the item register, claim replies and courier dispatch (lostproperty@moonfieldvalley.example, 053 118 460). If two people claim the same item, or a claim is refused, the case is reviewed by Mr. Chalermpol Duangkham, Guest Services Manager, whose decision is final.
