Call for Volunteers: Fab ERT Intake 2027

Siliwan Microfab Co., Ltd. · Fab 2, Northern Region Industrial Estate, Lamphun · Ref. EHS-CFA-2026-09 · Issued 12 October 2026

1. About the team

The Fab Emergency Response Team (ERT) is first on scene for chemical spills, toxic gas alarms, cleanroom fires and medical emergencies in Fab 2 and its sub-fab. Intake 2027 recruits 18 volunteers: 4 for each of shifts A, B, C and D, plus 2 day-office members.

2. Who can apply

- Permanent employees of Siliwan Microfab with at least 6 months of continuous service on 30 November 2026.
- Contractor or labour-agency staff, interns and fixed-term trainees cannot apply, even if they work full time in Fab 2.
- A valid Level 2 cleanroom gowning certificate is required.
- First Aid Team members may apply but must leave that team when ERT training starts.

3. Selection steps

1. Submit form EHS-F31 through the HR portal by 20 November 2026, 17:00, with your shift manager's signed approval.
2. Medical fitness assessment (lung function test and breathing-apparatus mask fit test) by Dr. Kittisak Phromsuk, Occupational Physician, Occupational Health Clinic, Room C-114, 24 November to 4 December 2026.
3. Stair climb in full gear at the Fire Training Ground, Building F, on 9 December 2026; results by 18 December.

4. Training and commitment

Selected volunteers attend the 40-hour ERT Basic Course from 11 to 15 January 2027 at the Fire Training Ground, Building F. All five days are compulsory; a volunteer who misses any day moves to the next intake. Members then join one 4-hour drill per month and a 16-hour yearly refresher.

5. Allowance and recognition

From the month after completing the Basic Course, members receive an ERT allowance of 1,500 baht per month. Until 31 December 2026 the allowance was 1,000 baht. A call-out payment of 300 baht is added for each real incident attended.

Note. Applicants who miss the 6-month service rule can apply to the next intake, opening May 2027. Questions: Jiraporn Lertwattana, ERT Captain, ext. 2417.
